3. Trim off excess fabric  $\frac{1}{4}$ " beyond the seam lines (fig 2). Press over (fig 3).

4. Repeat for the opposite two corners (fig 4).
5. Sew the blocks into six rows of five blocks with BKG  $2\frac{1}{2}$ " x  $5\frac{1}{2}$ " strips in between and at each end.
6. Sew the cornerstones (red, orange, blue and green  $2\frac{1}{2}$ " squares) and remaining BKG  $2\frac{1}{2}$ " x  $5\frac{1}{2}$ " strips into seven rows with cornerstones between the strips and at each end.
7. Sew the thirteen rows of the cot quilt top together.

Finishing the cot quilt

1. Sew the binding strips end to end using diagonal or straight seams as preferred and press wrong sides together along the length to make a double fold binding.
